Gospel Luke 4.1-13

After Jesus was baptized in the Jordan River, the Spirit led him into the desert for forty days, and the devil tried to tempt him. For all those days, Jesus did not eat any food, and he was hungry. So the devil said to Jesus:

“If you are the Son of God, tell this stone to become bread.”

But Jesus said to the devil.

“It is written in the books of Moses,
‘People do not live just by eating food.’ ”

Then the devil took Jesus up and showed him all the kingdoms of the world, and said:

“I will give you all the power and glory of these kingdoms if you will worship me.”

But Jesus said,

“It is written in the books of Moses,
‘You must worship God, and only God!’ ”

Then the devil took Jesus to the very top of the temple in Jerusalem, and said to him:

“If you are the Son of God, jump down from here, because it is written in the book of Psalms,

‘God will tell the angels to take care of you, and they will catch you so that you will not hurt your foot on a rock.’ ”

But Jesus said,

“It is also written,
‘You shall not test your God.’ ”

After these temptations, the devil left Jesus and waited for another time to come again.

Prayer: God our protector, you wanted Jesus to be with us. We are sometimes tempted to be greedy, to control other people’s lives, and to forget that all good things come from you. Hold us in your care and never let us forsake you. We ask you this through Christ our Lord. Amen.
