Gospel Matthew 5.1-12

Jesus and his disciples went up on a mountain, and they sat down so Jesus could teach them. Jesus said to his disciples, “Blessed are people who know they need God,

for the Kingdom of Heaven belongs to them.

Blessed are people who are sad now,
for later God will comfort them.

Blessed are the people who are humble,
for God will give them everything.

Blessed are people who work for Justice,
for God will give them all they need.

Blessed are people who give mercy to others,
for God will have mercy on them.

Blessed are people who have hearts that are pure,
for they will see God.

Blessed are people who make peace,
for they will be called children of God.

Blessed are people who suffer for doing what is right,
for the Kingdom of Heaven belongs to them.

And you are blessed when people hurt you and say bad things about you because you believe in me. Be happy and glad, for God will reward you in heaven.”

Prayer: God, today we are reminded that your blessings don't follow the logic of the world. We pray for a more just world in which all have enough and none are left behind. Fill our hearts with love. Make our hearts pure. Remind us that we are created in your image, each of us a beautiful reflection of you. Help us to be peacemakers. Help us to share with others what we have received and help us to proclaim the good news of your love. In your name, we pray. Amen.
