Gospel Luke 4.15, 22-30

When Jesus taught on the Sabbath day in the synagogue in his home town of Nazareth, all the people said wonderful things about him, but, in fact, they wondered how he could be so wise, and they said,

"Isn't he the son of Joseph?"

Jesus said to them,

"I am sure you are thinking,

'Doctor, why don't you heal yourself? Why don't you do miracles here that you did in Capernaum?'

"But I tell you, people never believe or accept a prophet who comes from their own town.

[For example, when Elisha was a prophet, there were many people living right here in Israel who had leprosy. The only leper who was healed by Elisha was Naaman, a man who lived in Syria."]

When Jesus said this, the people in the synagogue became very angry. They forced him out of the town and took him to the top of a hill so that they could throw him over a cliff. Jesus escaped through the crowd and walked away.

Prayer: Saving God, to live as Jesus taught us is hard, and we often fail. Fill us with confidence in your strength because you love us and you are always by our side. We make this prayer to you through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The people grew angry with Jesus!

What did they want to do to him?
