Gospel

Mark 5.21-24, 35-43

One day a man named Jairus came to see Jesus. He was one of the rulers of the synagogue. He knelt in front of Jesus and begged him to help him. He told Jesus,

“My little daughter is dying. Please come and put your hands on her so she will get well and live.”

So Jesus went with Jairus, and a large crowd of people followed them. While they were on their way, some people from Jairus’ house came and said,

“Your little girl is dead. There is no need to bother this Teacher now.”

Jesus said to Jairus,

“Don’t be afraid. Just have faith and believe.”

Then Jesus took Peter, James and John with him to Jairus’ house. When they got there many people were inside crying loudly. Jesus went in and said to them,

“Why are you crying and making all this noise? The child is not dead. She is asleep!”

When he said this, the people began to laugh and make fun of him. Jesus told them all to go outside. Then he took the little girl’s mother and father and the three disciples and went into the room where the little girl was in bed. Jesus took her hand and said,

“Talitha, kum!” which means
“Little girl, I say to you, get up!”

The little girl, who was twelve years old, got up immediately and began to walk around. Her family was amazed and filled with wonder. Jesus told them not to tell anyone what had happened. Then he told them to give the little girl something to eat.

Prayer: God of all people who live and of all who are dead, look with pity on those who are close to dying and on those in our families who have died. Teach us to understand that dying is just a doorway to a new and better life and that one day, with the help of Jesus, we will all live together with you in a world that will last forever and ever. Amen.

News came that the little girl was dead!

What did Jesus say to her father?
